An ORDINANCE for the GOVERNMENT of the TERRITO-RY of the UNITED STATES, North-West of the RIVER OHIO.

DEIT ORDAINED by the United States in Congress assembled, That the said territory, for the purposes of temporary government, be one diffrict; subject, however, to be divided into two diffricts; as future circumstances may, in the opinion of Congress, make it expedient.

Beit ordained by the authority aforefaid, That the estates both of resident and non-resident proprietors in the said territory, dying intestate, shall descend to, and be distributed among their children, and the descendants of a deceased child in equal parts; the descendants of a deceased child or grand-child, to take the share of their deceased parent in equal parts among them : And where there shall be no children or descendants, then in equal parts to the next of kin, in equal degree; and among collaterals, the children of a deceased brother or fifter of the intestate, shall have in equal parts among them their deceased parents share; and there shall in no case be a distinction between kindred of the whole and half blood; fatheir deceased parents share; and there shall in no case be a distinction between kindred of the whole and half blood; faving in all cases to the widow of the intestate, her third part of the real estate for life, and one third part of the personal estate; and this law relative to descents and dower, shall remain in full force until altered by the legislature of the difference; and this law relative to descents and dower, shall remain in full force until altered by the legislature of the difference; and this law relative to descents and dower, shall remain in full force until altered by the legislature of the difference and the said territory may be devised or bequeathed by wills in writing, signed and sealed by him or her, in whom the estate may be, (being of full age) and attested by three witnesses; — and real estates may be conveyed by lease and release, or bargain and fale, signed, sealed, and delivered by the person being of full age, in whom the estate may be, and attested by two witnesses, provided such wills be duly proved, and such conveyances be acknowledged, or the execution thereof duly proved, and be recorded within one year after proper magistrates, courts, and registers shall be appointed for that purpose; and personal property may be transferred by delivery, saving, however, to the French and Canadian inhabitants, and other settlers of the Kaskaskies, Saint Vincent's, and the neighbouring villages, who have heretofore professed themselves citizens of Virginia, their laws and customs now in force among them, relative to the descent and conveyance of property.

perty.

Be it ordained by the authority aforefaid, That there shall be appointed from time to time, by Congress, a governor, whose commission shall continue in force for the term of three years, unless sooner revoked by Congress, he shall reside in the district, and have a freehold estate therein, in one thousand acres of land, while in the exercise of his office.

There shall be appointed from time to time, by Congress, a secretary, whose commission shall continue in force for four years, unless sooner revoked, he shall reside in the district, and have a freehold estate therein, in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of his office; it shall be his duty to keep and preserve the acts and laws passed by the legislature, and the public records of the district, and the proceedings of the governor in his executive department; and transmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress: There shall altransmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress: There shall altransmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress: There shall altransmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress: There shall altransmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress: There shall altransmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress: There shall altransmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress: There shall altransmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings of the governor and such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the secretary of Congress; the secretary of Congress is the secretary of the

The governor for the time being, shall be commander in chief of the militia, appoint and commission all officers in the same, below the rank of general officers; all general officers shall be appointed and commissioned by Congress.

Previous to the organization of the general assembly, the governor shall appoint such magistrates and other civil officers, in each county or township, as he shall find necessary for the preservation of the peace and good order in the same.

After the general assembly shall be organized, the powers and duties of magistrates and other civil officers shall be required. After the general aftembly shall be organized, the powers and duties of magistrates and other civil officers shall be regulated and defined by the said aftembly; but all magistrates and other civil officers, not herein otherwise directed, shall, during the continuance of this temporary government, be appointed by the governor.

For the prevention of crimes and injuries, the laws to be adopted or made shall have force in all parts of the district, and for the execution of process, criminal and civil, the governor shall make proper divisions thereof--and he shall proceed from time to time, as circumstances may require, to lay out the parts of the district in which the Indian titles shall have been extinguished, into counties and townships, subject, however, to such alterations as may thereafter be made by the

So foon as there shall be five thousand free male inhabitants, of full age, in the district, upon giving proof thereof to the governor, they shall receive authority, with time and place, to elect representatives from their counties or townships, to represent them in the general assembly; provided that for every five hundred free male inhabitants there shall be one representative, and so on progressively with the number of free male inhabitants, shall the right of representation increase, until the number of representatives shall amount to twenty-five, after which the number and proportion of representatives shall be regulated by the legislature. Provided they no person be eligible or qualified to assess the country-five shall be required by the legislature. increase, until the number of representatives shall amount to twenty-five, after which the number and proportion of representatives shall be regulated by the legislature; provided that no person be eligible or qualified to act as a representative, unless he shall have been a citizen of one of the United States three years and be a resident in the district, or unless he shall have resided in the district three years, and in either case shall likewise hold in his own right, in see simple, two hundred acres of land within the same:——Provided also, that a freehold in fifty acres of land in the district, having been a citizen of one of the states, and being resident in the district; or the like freehold and two years residence in the district shall be necessary to qualify a man as an elector of a representative.

The representatives thus elected, shall serve for the term of two years, and in case of the death of a representative, or removal from office, the governor shall issue a writ to the county or township for which he was a member, to elect another in his stead, to serve for the residue of the term.

another in his flead, to ferve for the refidue of the term.

The general affembly, or legislature, shall consist of the governor, legislative council, and a house of representatives.

The legislative council shall consist of five members, to continue in office five years, unless sooner removed by Congress, any three of whom to be a quorum, and the members of the council shall be nominated and appointed in the following manner, to wit: As foon as representatives shall be elected, the governor shall appoint a time and place for them to meet together, and, when met, they shall nominate ten persons, residents in the district, and each possessed of a freehold meet together, and, when met, they shall nominate ten persons, residents in the district, and each possessed of a freehold in five hundred acres of land, and return their names to Congress; five of whom Congress shall appoint and commission to serve as aforesaid; and whenever a vacancy shall happen in the council, by death or removal from office, the house of representatives shall nominate two persons, qualified as aforesaid, for each vacancy, and return their names to Congress; one of whom Congress shall appoint and commission for the residue of the term; and every five years, four months at least before the expiration of the time of service of the members of council, the said house shall nominate ten persons, qualified as aforesaid, and return their names to Congress, five of whom Congress shall appoint and commission to serve as members of the council sive years, unless sooner removed. And the governor, legislative council, and house of representatives, shall have authority to make laws in all cases for the good government of the district, not repugnant to the principles and articles in this ordinance established and declared. And all bills having passed by a majority in the house, and by a majority in the council, shall be referred to the governor for his assent; but no bill or legislative act whatever, shall be of any force without his assent. The governor shall have power to convene, prorogue and dissolve the general assembly, when in his opinion it shall be expedient.

The governor, judges, legislative council, secretary, and such other officers as Congress shall appoint in the district, shall take an oath or affirmation of sidelity, and of office, the governor before the president of Congress, and all other officers before the governor. As soon as a legislature shall be formed in the district, the council and house, affembled in one room, shall have authority by joint ballot to elect a delegate to Congress, who shall have a feat in Congress, with a right of debating, but not of voting, during this temporary government.

And for extending the fundamental principles of civil and religious liberty, which form the basis whereon these republies, their laws and conflitutions are erected; to fix and establish those principles as the basis of all laws, constitutions and governments, which for ever hereafter shall be formed in the said territory; -- to provide also for the establishment of flates, and permanent government therein, and for their admission to a share in the sederal councils on an equal sooting with the original states, at as early periods as may be confisent with the general interest:

It is hereby ordained and declared by the authority aforesaid, That the following articles shall be confidered as articles of compact between the original states and the people and states in the said territory, and forever remain unalterable, unless by common confent, to wit:

Article the First. No person, demeaning himself in a peaceable and orderly manner, shall ever be molested on account of his mode of worship or religious sentiments in the said territory.

Article the Second. The inhabitants of the said territory shall always be entitled to the benefits of the writ of habeas corpus, and of the trial by jury; of a proportionate representation of the people in the legislature, and of judicial proceedings according to the course of the common law; all persons shall be bailable unless for capital offences, where the proof shall be evident, or the prefumption great; all fines shall be moderate, and no cruel or unufual punishments shall be inflicted; no man shall be deprived of his liberty or property but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land; and should the public exigencies make it necessary for the common preservation to take any person's property, or to demand his particular services, full compensation shall be made for the same; — and in the just preservation of rights and property it is understood and declared, that no law ought ever to be made, or have force in the faid territory, that shall in any manner whatever interfere with, or affect private contracts or engagements, bona fide and without sraud previously formed.

Article the Third.

Religion, morality and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, fchools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged. The utmost good faith shall always be observed towards the Indians; their lands and property shall never be taken from them without their consent; and in their property, rights and liberty, they never shall be invaded or diffurbed, unless in just and lawful wars authorised by Congress; but laws founded in justice and humanity shall from time to time be made, for preventing wrongs being done to them, and for preserving peace and friendship with them.

Article the Fourth. The faid territory, and the flates which may be formed therein, shall forever remain a part of this confederacy of the United States of America, subject to the articles of confederation, and to such alterations therein as shall be constitutionally made; and to all the acts and ordinances of the United states in Congress assembled, conformable thereto. The inhabitants and fettlers in the faid territory, shall be subject to pay a part of the sederal debts conable thereto. The innabrants and retriers in the raid territory, man be rubject to pay a part of the iederal debts contracted, and a proportional part of the expences of government, to be apportioned on them by Congress, according to the fame common rule and measure by which apportionments thereof shall be made on the other states; and the taxes for paying their proportion, shall be laid and levied by the authority and direction of the legislatures of the districts or new states, as in the original states, within the time agreed upon by the United States in Congress assembled. The legislatures of those districts, or new states, shall never interfere with the primary disposal of the fail by the United States in Congress assembled, nor with any regulations Congress was find any of the states in Congress assembled. foil by the United States in Congress assembled, nor with any regulations Congress may find necessary for securing the title in such soil to the bona side purchasers. No tax shall be imposed on lands the property of the United States. and in no case shall non-resident proprietors be taxed higher than residents. The navigable waters leading into the Misffippi and St. Lawrence, and the carrying places between the fame shall be common highways, and forever free, as well to the inhabitants of the faid territory, as to the citizens of the United States, and those of any other states that may be admitted into the confederacy, without any tax, impost or duty therefor.

Article the Fifth. There shall be formed in the said territory, not less than three nor more than five states; and the boundaries of the states, as soon as Virginia shall alter her act of cession and consent to the same, shall become fixed and established as follows, to wit: The western flate in the said territory, shall be bounded by the Missisppi, the Ohio and Wabash rivers; a direct line drawn from the Wabash and Post Vincent's due north to the territorial line between the United States and Canada, and by the said territorial line to the lake of the Woods and Missisppi. The middle state shall be bounded by the said direct line, the Wabash from Post Vincent's to the Ohio; by the Ohio, by a direct line shall be bounded by the said direct line to the said territorial line to the Said territorial line and by the Said territorial line to the Said territorial line and by the Ohio, by a direct line said territorial line and by the Said territorial line and by drawn due north from the mouth of the Great Miami to the faid territorial line, and by the faid territorial line. eastern state shall be bounded by the Iast mentioned direct line, the Ohio, Pennsylvania, and the said territorial line: Provided however, and it is further understood and declared, that the boundaries of these three states, shall be subject fo sart to be altered, that if Congress shall hereafter find it expedient, they shall have authority to form one or two states in that part of the said territory which lies north of an east and west line drawn through the southerly bend or extreme of lake Michigan : and whenever any of the faid flates shall have fixty thousand free inhabitants therein, such flate shall be admitted by its delegates into the Congress of the United states, on an equal sooting with the original states in all respects whatever; and shall be at liberty to form a permanent constitution and state government: Provided the conflitution and government fo to be formed, shall be republican, and in conformity to the principles contained in these articles; and fo far as it can be confiftent with the general interest of the confederacy, such admission shall be allowed art an earlier period, and when there may be a lefs number of free inhabitants in the flate than fixty thousand.

Article the Sixth. There shall be neither flavery nor involuntary servitude in the said territory, otherwise than in punishment of crimes whereof the party shall have been duly convicted: Provided always, that any person escaping into the same, from whom labor or service is lawfully claimed in any one of the original states, such fugitive may be law 4.

fully reclaimed and conveyed to the person claiming his or her labor or service as aforesaid.

Be it ordained by the authority aforesaid, That the resolutions of the 23d of April, 1784, relative to the subject of is ordinance, be, and the same are hereby repealed and declared null and void.

DONE by the UNITED STATES in CONGRESS assembled, the 13th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1787, and of their sovereignty and independence the 12th.

Cha thomson fuy